

Project 2: Chinook Database

Submitted by Iryna Soltyska

What is the amount in dollars spent per artist?

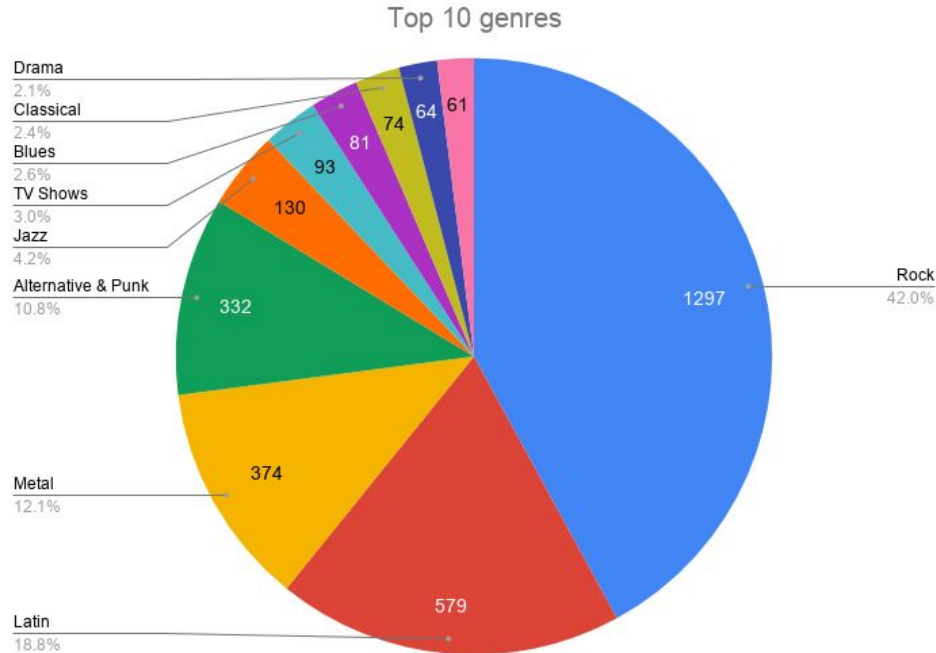

From this bar chart is clear that amount spent on Iron Maiden is 138.6 dollars and this is the highest position per invoice.

Eric Clapton took the last position with 39.6 dollars per invoice.

At the middle are Lost with 81.59 dollars and The Office with 4975 dollars per invoice.

What are the top 10 genres?

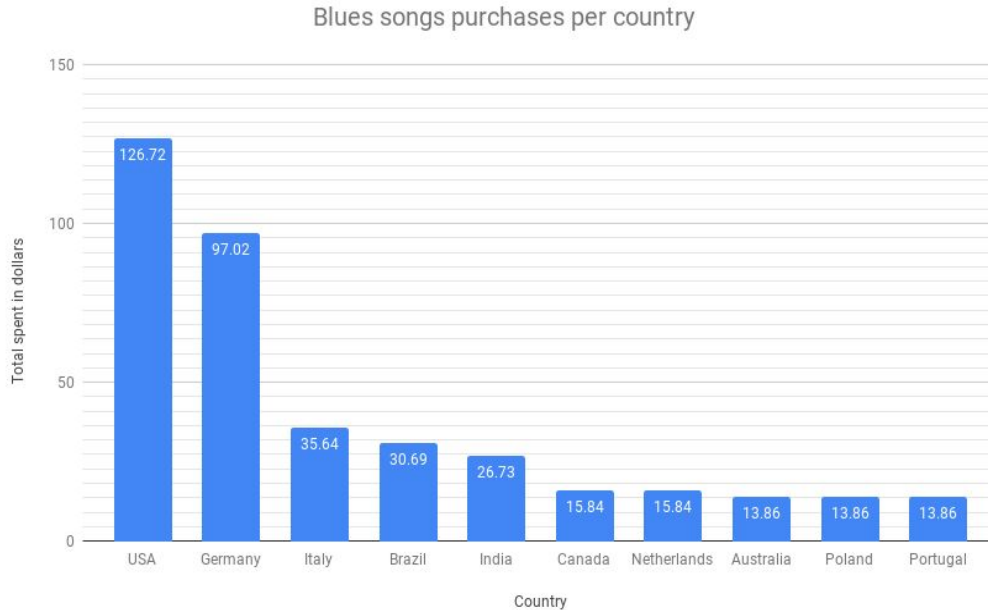

This pie chart represents top 10 genres in Chinook Database.

As we can see, the leader is a Rock music (1297). Probably the biggest amount among all songs in dataset are rock songs.

The second and third places took Latin (579) and Metal (374) genres respectively.

Classical (74), Drama (64) and R&B/Soul have much less songs in dataset.

Top 10 countries where customers spend more on Blues?

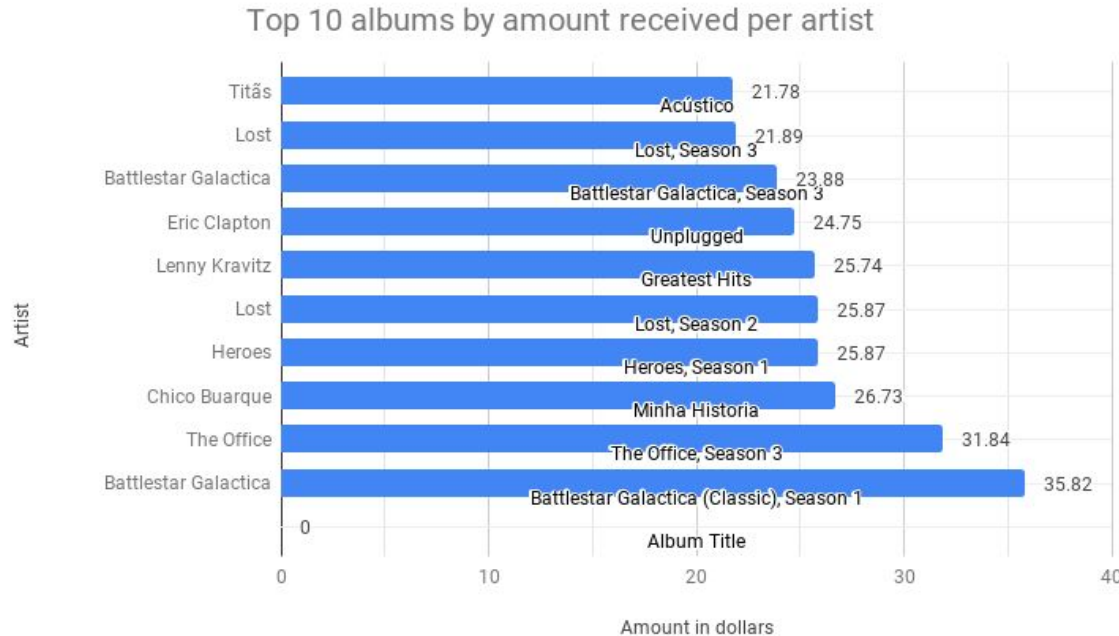

This column chart represent countries where customers spend more money (in dollars) on Blues genre songs.

USA (126.72$) and Germany (97.02$) take the first and the second place respectively. No wonder that the USA took a first place because it is Blues home.

European countries are at the end of Blues songs consumer interest.

What are top 10 Artist with albums received the most money?

This bar chart shows that Battlestar Galactica with album Battlestar Galactica (Classic), Season 1 was purchased for 35.82 dollars took the first place in the chart.

Lenny Kravitz with album Great Hits was purchased for the 25.74 dollars took sixth place.

The last place took Titãs with abum Acusto was purchased 21.78 dollars.

All data was taken from Chinnok Database provided by Udacity and doesn't represent the entire population.